J. J. Lee of Lafayette Street Was 80 Years Old On Saturday, Dec. 10

J. J. Lee Winnfield resident, turned 80 years old last Saturday.

"I'm thankful to be able to walk to town and shake hands with friends," he told a member of the Enterprise staff who inquired how he was celebrating his birthday.

Mr. Lee lives in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Harvey Cockerham, on Lafayette Street. He moved to Winnfield several years ago from Gaars Mill, where he had lived at the same place for 49 years.

Mr. Lee's brother, L. L. Lee of Dodson, is 81 years of age, and another brother, C. C. Lee, of Monroe, is 77. Having double initials like that has caused confusion in getting mail, Mr. Lee said.

He has two daughters besides Mrs. Cockerham. They are Mrs. J. C. Wood, Jacksonville, Fla., and Mrs. Gertie Sanders, West Monroe. He has one son, Sherwood Lee of Kellogg, Idaho.

While renewing his subscription last week, Mr. Lee remarked, "I've been a subscriber to the Enterprise ever since it was a paper."

He has been a member of the Baptist church for 60 years in
