

MRS. WILLIAM JOSEPH WOOD

Miss Kimball, W. J. Wood Wed In Garden Ceremony

In a beautiful garden wedding at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, August 4, at the Saul Adler home on Emerson Avenue, Miss Joan Elizabeth Kimball became the bride of William Joseph Wood of Winfield.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Audrey Kimball of this city and Mr. Wood's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Cleary of Winfield.

Hurricane lamps marked the wedding party's side to the improvised altar which was a picturesque arbor covered with pink roses of Montana. A sunburst arrangement of pink gladioli and asters centered the arbor illuminated by a pair of spiral candelabras with cathedral tapers. On either side of the improvised altar were large pink crepe myrtle trees and masses of moon flowers. White calladiums and rosetta roses were featured at points of interest throughout the garden.

Organ selections were presented by Marvin Kornike who also accompanied the soloist, Garland Shell, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, R. G. Medaries, was wearing a white wedding gown styled with tiers of scalloped rose-point lace. The sculptured bodice was complemented by a rosepoint lace neckline adorned with seed pearls and featured cap sleeves. She wore wrist-length gloves. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of rosepoint lace and seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet centered with a white orchid and surrounded by velvet lace leaves, nylon tulle and tuberoses with matching streamers and garlands of tuberoses.

Miss Peggy Ann McCloy of Shreveport was maid of honor. She was gowned in a rose pail-length gown of crystalline with a long torso and full skirt. She wore a poke bonnet with a shirred brim, tied with matching velvet ribbon. Her bouquet was a half-open parasol of blue lace overflying with Carol Amling roses and pink and blue daisies.

Bridesmaids were Miss Will Mae Flanagan and Mrs. John Granthan. They wore identical light pink crystalline dresses with long torsos and full skirts. Their bouquets and headpieces matched the honor attendant's. They wore matching gloves and shoes.

The bride's younger sister, Miss Tina Kimball was flower girl. Her dress was a copy of the bridesmaid's in a matching shade of pink. She wore a handful of pink Carol Amling roses and carried a pink basket edged in pink tulle and filled with roses and daisies.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was O. J. Gremillion. Ushers were Dewitt D. Duncan and Charles W. Morrow, both of Natchitoches.

Mrs. Kimball chose for her daughter's wedding a pink linen sheath model embroidered with tiny roses. Her hat was a small close fitting pink embossed in crystal beads. Two pink cymbidium orchids complemented her ensemble.

The bridegroom's mother was becomingly attired in a blue lace dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was also of pink cymbidium orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Adler, the bride's uncle and aunt, entertained at a reception in their garden following the wedding.

Registering guest in the bride's book was Miss Jo Ellen Medaries. The table was enhanced by a memory candle.

Centering the punch table was an epergne arrangement of pink asters and frosted leather leaf foliage. Two cut glass punch bowls were placed at each end of the table featuring molds of pink roses topped by colonial bouquets of roses and tuberoses.

The wedding cake centered a white wrought iron glass - top table, the base of which was decorated with white calladiums and pink hydrangeas. A colonial three-tiered cake centered the table. Tall white cupid colonades separated the layers. On either side of the cake were hurricane lamps surrounded by bouquets of pink roses, daisies and tuberoses. In front of the cake was an open Bible vase of roses and tuberoses.

Presiding at the cake service was Mrs. Edna Street.

Mrs. Eddie Goodwin, Mrs. Ruby Richardson and Mrs. Ida Rosenberg alternated at pouring punch. Serving as tea girls were Miss Mary Catherine Medaries, Miss Sue Medaries and Miss Linda Trimble.

For a wedding trip to Florida, the bride changed to a brown silk suit with beige accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Upon return, they will make their home in New Orleans.

an
The

SEPARATES