Stark's Regiment, in the spring of 1777 & included in the Brigade of General Williamson [Andrew Williamson]. He declares that from the above period he was to the close of the revolutionary struggle in South Carolina pretty constantly engaged as one of a company of 70 and marching over the Country to keep under the marauding bands of Tories & small detachments of British soldiers, that infested & annoyed the true Whigs of that part of Carolina known as Edgefield District; until he was ordered with his company to joined the troops that had Col. Turner & was engaged in keeping as much as possible the Tories in awe, that had been & were at that time headed by Col. Young & one Major Neely in Edgefield, in this service he continued until about June 1781. He further states now from the best of his recollection (which he [indecipherable words] is greatly impaired by old age and consequent infirmity) that he served actively & faithfully in the defense & preservation of his Country during all the different services, together at the least 2 & a half years if not more for which he has never received the least compensation. Although long in service, he was never in any regularly fought battles but in numerous skirmishes with small detachments of British & Tory pillage parties. He further states that he never obtained any discharge of any kind, nor has he any documentary evidence of any kind showing the services, rendered by him, nor does he now know of any person living by whom he can prove the same. He was born in Edgefield district in the State of South Carolina on the 16th of February 1754 as

Amended Declaration

State of Alabama Jefferson County

On this the 5th day of August personally appeared in open Court it being the regular term of the County Court for the County and State aforesaid Michael McCarty a resident citizen of the County of Jefferson & State of Alabama aged 88 years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following amended declaration to that made The last Term of the Circuit Court held for the County & State aforesaid in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed June the 7th 1832.

That he entered the Army of the United States under the command of Capt. Michael

Watson that the Lieut. was James Butler but in what year he is unable from defect of memory to state. That he served in a Regiment of South Carolina militia commanded by Col. Hammonds [sic, Leroy Hammond] whose given name he cannot remember and that General Williamson was the commanding officer. That under these officers he served at a place called Wilson's field in Edgefield District in the State of South Carolina at one time as much as a 3 months. That he was also in service opposite Augusta in the State of South Carolina about one month whilst the British forces were in possession of that place and that upon their retreat to Savannah he was in consequence of sickness discharged & went home. That he was frequently out on scouting parties against the Tories sometimes for 3 weeks sometimes more and sometimes less during the greater part of the war but that by reason of his old age and consequent loss of memory he cannot swear positively as to the precise length of his service otherwise than as above stated. He is however satisfied that the whole time of his service putting it all together was not less than 2 years during which time he served as a common soldier. This Declarant further states that he was induced from his infirmities and impoverished condition to make an application for a pension in the year 1835, and that from his necessity from age and his ignorance of the necessary steps to be taken in order to enable him to obtain a pension he was necessarily compelled to confide the business to those as he supposed better informed, that they from time to time assured him that they expected an answer and that finally he was informed that nothing could be obtained. That he rested satisfied for some time with that answer, until upon further inquiry he was induced to believe that his claim had not been properly presented to the Department and that if so presented he would obtain what he honestly believes he is entitled to from the service rendered his Country in its hour of peril.

He hereby again relinquishes every claim whatsoever to a pension or annuity except the present & he declares that his name is not on the Pension Roll of any agency of any State.
Sworn to & subscribed the day & year aforesaid in open Court.
